invested reside, and this action arises from events which occurred or were due to occur in Broward County, Florida.

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

37. Each of the Partnerships is governed by a Partnership Agreement (collectively, the "Partnership Agreements").¹

38. Pursuant to the Partnership Agreements, the Partnerships were formed for the purpose of engaging in the business of investing.

39. Each of the partners in the Partnerships (the "Partners"), including, upon information and belief, Defendants, invested significant funds into one of two investment vehicles, each of which was expected to yield stable, consistent returns: S&P and P&S.

40. The purpose of each Partnership was to pool investor funds, which the former Managing General Partners of the Partnerships – Michael D. Sullivan and Greg Powell – invested with Bernard L. Madoff Investment Securities, LLC.

41. Pursuant to the Partnership Agreements, the profits and losses attributable to the Partnerships were to be allocated among the Partners in the ratio of each Partner's capital account to the aggregate total capital contribution of all the Partners on an actual daily basis commencing on the date of each Partner's admission into the Partnerships as follows: twenty percent (20%) to the Managing General Partners and eighty percent (80%) to the Partners. A true and correct copy of the partnership agreement of S&P Associates, General Partnership is attached hereto as Exhibit A. A true and correct copy of the partnership agreement of P&S Associates, General Partnership is attached hereto as Exhibit B.

42. Distributions of profits to the Partners from the Partnerships were to be made at least once per year. Cash flow was to be distributed among all the Partners, in the ratio of each Partner's capital account to the aggregate total capital contribution of all the Partners on an actual daily basis commencing on the date of each Partner's admission into the partnership, for any fiscal year as follows: twenty percent (20%) to the Managing General Partners and eighty percent (80%) to the Partners.

43. In other words, if the Partnership distributed any profits to the Partners, those profits had to be distributed in equal proportion to all Partners depending on each Partner's pro rata share in the Partnership as of the date of the distribution. See Exhibits A and B to the Complaint.

44. The Partnerships' investments were to be overseen by the Managing General Partners of the Partnerships, Michael D. Sullivan and Greg Powell ("the former Managing General Partners").² Additionally, the former Managing General Partners were to oversee the withdrawal of funds and distribution of funds from the Partnerships to the Partners.

45. On August 29, 2012, this Court entered an Agreed Order by and between certain partners, acting on behalf of the Partnerships, and Michael D. Sullivan (the "Order"). Pursuant to the Order, Sullivan resigned as Managing General Partner and Plaintiff Smith was deemed in his stead to be sole Managing General Partner of the Partnerships. Furthermore, Plaintiff Smith, as Managing General Partner, was given "full access to all of the Partnership's books, records, assets and property and will be afforded all of the rights and duties of a Managing General Partner . . ." A true and correct copy of the Order is attached hereto as Exhibit C.

46. After an investigation of the books and records that have been made available to Smith, it was determined that Defendants did not comply with the terms of the Partnership Agreements. The former Managing General Partners breached their fiduciary duties of loyalty and care to the Partners and the Partnerships by making distributions to Defendants that were not made from the Partnerships' profits but were rather made from the principal contributions of other Partners. The former Managing General Partners did not invest all of the funds contributed by the Partners.

THE PARTNERS RECEIVED IMPROPER DISTRIBUTIONS FROM THE PARTNERSHIPS

47. In direct contravention to the plain terms of the Partnership Agreements, Defendants reaped profits from their investments in the Partnerships, while other Partners lost millions of dollars. Specifically, Defendants received distributions from the capital contributions of other Partners rather than from the Partnerships' profits. Those distributions were improper and rightfully belong to the Plaintiffs for distribution to the Partners depending on each Partners' pro rata share.

48. Plaintiffs have a bona fide cause of action against Defendants who have improperly received distributions for breach of contract, unjust enrichment, money had and received, and fraudulent transfer pursuant to Fla. Stat. § 725.105(1)(a).

49. Plaintiffs are the proper party to the causes of action contemplated herein.

50. All conditions precedent to the bringing of this action have been performed, have occurred, have been waived or have been excused.

COUNT I
BREACH OF CONTRACT
(AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

51. Plaintiffs reallege the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 through 50, and incorporate those allegations by reference.

52. The Partners, including Defendants, executed and agreed to the terms of the Partnership Agreements.

53. Defendants breached the Partnership Agreements because they received and retained distributions based upon the capital contributions of other Partners rather than the Partnerships' profits.

54. Plaintiffs were damaged by Defendants' breach of the Partnership Agreements because Defendants received distributions that were wrongly conveyed to them, and were conveyed to Defendants in violation of the fiduciary duties of loyalty and care that the former Managing General Partners owed to the Partners and the Partnerships.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs demand entry of judgment against Defendants for damages, court costs, interest, and such other and additional relief as the Court deems just and proper.

COUNT II
UNJUST ENRICHMENT
(AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

55. Plaintiffs reallege the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 through 36, 39 through 40, 42, 44, 45, and 48 through 50, and incorporate those allegations by reference.

56. The Partnerships conferred a benefit on Defendants by making distributions to Defendants from the capital contributions of other Partners rather than from the Partnerships' profits.

57. Defendants were able to receive those distributions belonging to other Partners of the Partnerships through undue advantage exercised by the former Managing General Partners, who made the distributions and breached their fiduciary duties of care and loyalty to the Partnerships and the Partners.

58. Defendants voluntarily accepted and retained those distributions from the Partnerships.

59. It would be inequitable and unjust for Defendants to retain the distributions conferred by the Partnerships because a portion of the distributions received by Defendants belong to other Partners.

60. Plaintiffs are entitled to the return of those amounts by which Defendants were unjustly enriched, through disgorgement or another appropriate remedy.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs demand entry of judgment against Defendants in the amount that they were unjustly enriched, including pre- and post-judgment interest and costs, and to grant any other relief the Court deems appropriate.

COUNT III
MONEY HAD AND RECEIVED
(AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

61. Plaintiffs reallege the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 through 36, 39 through 40, 42, 44, 45, and 48 through 50, and incorporate those allegations by reference.

62. The Partnerships conferred a benefit on Defendants by making distributions to Defendants from the capital contributions of other Partners rather than from the Partnerships' profits.

63. Defendants were able to receive those distributions belonging to the Partnerships' Partners through undue advantage exercised by the former Managing General Partners, who made the distributions and breached their fiduciary duties of loyalty and care to the Partnerships and the Partners.

64. Defendants voluntarily accepted and retained those distributions from the Partnerships.

65. It would be inequitable and unjust for Defendants to retain the distributions conferred by the Partnerships because a portion of the distributions received by Defendants belong to other Partners.

66. In equity and good conscience, Plaintiffs are entitled to the return of those amounts by which Defendants were unjustly enriched, through disgorgement or another appropriate remedy.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs demand entry of judgment against Defendants in the amount that they were unjustly enriched, including pre- and post-judgment interest and costs, and to grant any other relief the Court deems appropriate

COUNT IV
AVOIDANCE OF FRAUDULENT TRANSFERS PURSUANT TO SECTION 726.105(1)(a) OF THE FLORIDA STATUTES
(AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

67. Plaintiffs reallege the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 through 50, and incorporate those allegations by reference.

68. Throughout the operation of the Partnerships, the Partners were entitled to receive distributions from the Partnerships pursuant to the Partnership Agreements.

69. Defendants were able to receive distributions from the Partnerships through undue advantage exercised by the former Managing General Partners, who breached their fiduciary duties of loyalty and care, and who made the distributions with the actual intent to hinder, delay or defraud certain of the Partners, who are and were creditors of the Partnerships, as well as the Partnerships themselves.

70. The distributions made by the former Managing General Partners from the Partnerships to Defendants are transfers that could have been applicable to the payment of the distributions and obligations due to the Partners under the Partnership Agreements.

71. The Partnerships did not receive reasonably equivalent value in exchange for the distributions made to Defendants.

72. The transfers to Defendants may be avoided under Section 726.105(1)(a) of the Florida Statutes.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs respectfully request the Court enter a Judgment:

- a. Declaring the transfers to Defendants to have been fraudulent transfers pursuant to Section 726.105(1)(a) of the Florida Statutes;
- b. Avoiding the transfers to Defendants as fraudulent transfers in violation of Section 726.105(1)(a) of the Florida Statutes;

Plaintiffs,

v.

MICHAEL D. SULLIVAN, individually,

Defendant.

AGREED ORDER RESOLVING PLAINTIFFS'
EMERGENCY MOTION FOR TEMPORARY INJUNCTION

THIS CAUSE came before the Court on Plaintiffs' Emergency Motion for Temporary Injunction, and this Court having been advised of an agreement between the parties and being otherwise duly advised in the premises, it is hereby ORDERED that:

1. This Order implements the agreement of the Parties and is entered on an agreed basis. Plaintiffs' Emergency Motion for Temporary Injunction is resolved as provided herein.
2. Defendant Michael D. Sullivan ("Defendant") shall resign as Managing General Partner of both P&S Associates, General Partnership ("P&S") and S&P Associates, General Partnership ("S&P") (together with P&S, the "Partnerships"), and consents to the appointment of Margaret J. Smith ("Ms. Smith") as Managing General Partner in his stead. Plaintiffs' agreement to allow Defendant to resign is not a waiver of any positions asserted in this action.

3. Ms. Smith is deemed the Managing General Partner of the Partnerships effective upon entry of this Order and will remain as such unless and until she withdraws from her role as Managing General Partner, or is removed consistent with the terms of the Partnership Agreements.
4. As Managing General Partner, Ms. Smith will be given full access to all of the Partnerships' books, records, assets and property and will be afforded all of the rights and duties of a Managing General Partner, including but not limited to those contemplated by Article 8.02 of each of the Partnerships' respective Partnership Agreements.
5. Defendant does not now and will not in the future challenge the appointment of Ms. Smith as Managing General Partner on August 17, 2012. Defendant agrees that he is no longer authorized to act in any capacity as Managing General Partner of the Partnerships, and is to direct all Partnership business to Ms. Smith. In so consenting to his withdrawal as Managing General Partner, Defendant reserves all other rights and defenses, and such consent to Ms. Smith's appointment shall not be deemed or considered an admission of liability either on his own behalf or on behalf of any of his employees, affiliates, assigns or agents.
6. The Parties further reserve all rights with respect to the action styled P&S Associates, et al. v. Roberta Alves, et al., Case No. 2012CA013587, currently pending in the Circuit Court of the 15th Judicial Circuit in and for Palm Beach County (the "Interpleader Case"). Defendant may not act as representative or Managing General Partner of the Partnerships with respect to that action. However, the Parties specifically agree, as a condition of the relief provided herein, that the Interpleader Case will not be unilaterally dismissed by Ms. Smith in her capacity as the Managing General Partner of the Partnerships. Without prejudice to the rights of the Managing General Partner pursuant to paragraphs 7.05 and 8.02 of the Partnership Agreements, it is the intent of the Parties that the Interpleader Action provide the basis for the methodology used to determine how distributions will be made to partners, i.e., without limitation, based on the amount in the partner's capital account (last statement balance), in the amount of the net investment of the account holder over the life of the account, or based on other equitable principles. Plaintiffs reserve all defenses to the Interpleader Action, and do not, by virtue of this Order, concede that venue in Palm Beach County is appropriate.

7. On or before September 5, 2012, Defendant shall provide to Ms. Smith all books and records not previously provided to Plaintiffs or their representatives, including electronic records of the Partnerships. Subject to Defendant's right to raise any written objection under the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure, Defendant shall provide the books and records of JS&P Associates, General Partnership, and SPJ Investments, Ltd. Defendant has represented that he does not have custody, possession or control of the books or records, electronic or otherwise, of Guardian Angel Trust, LLC. Defendant further agrees to use his best efforts to insure an efficient, orderly and smooth transition from his role as Managing General Partner to Ms. Smith's role as Managing General Partner.
8. This case is hereby stayed pending further order of the Court, but for a period of not less than 60 days, without prejudice to the rights of any parties to this action. This stay will be lifted upon a motion by either party.

9. This Order is binding on all Parties, including Ms. Smith, who is not a named party but has submitted herself to the jurisdiction of this Court by accepting the appointment as Managing General Partner as provided in paragraph 3 above.

10. Defendant, by agreeing to the terms of this Order specifically denies and does not admit any liability or wrongdoing and nothing in this Order shall constitute any finding of liability or wrongdoing either by Defendant or any of his employees, affiliates, assigns or agents. It is Defendant's position that he has agreed to the relief herein to preserve the resources of the Partnerships.
